Our Approach to Imagery

We use imagery across our website to support understanding, illustrate project outcomes, and reflect the environments in which our work is delivered.

We are committed to ensuring all images are used responsibly, ethically, and in line with applicable laws and permissions.

How We Source Images

Images featured on our website are sourced from:

- Our own project photography and commissioned shoots
- Images provided or approved by clients and project partners
- Licensed stock image libraries
- Creative Commons and other open-licence sources
- Approved supplier or partner content

We take reasonable steps to confirm that all imagery used has appropriate permissions for publication.

Copyright and Ownership

All images displayed on this website remain the intellectual property of their respective owners and are protected by applicable copyright laws.

Where required, we:

- Obtain licences for commercial use
- Attribute authorship in accordance with licence terms
- Comply with any applicable usage restrictions

Nothing in this statement grants any licence or right to use, reproduce, or distribute any image without prior written consent from the relevant rights holder.

If you believe any image has been used in error or without appropriate authorisation, please contact us. We will promptly investigate and, where necessary, remove or correct the content.

Use of Project Images

Project imagery is used for illustrative and informational purposes to represent the type and quality of work delivered.

Unless expressly stated, images should not be interpreted as a complete or definitive representation of any specific project, scope, or involvement.

Where applicable, project images are used with the consent or approval of clients and project stakeholders.

Creative Commons and Open Licences

Where images are sourced under Creative Commons or similar open licences, we comply with the specific terms of the applicable licence, which may include:

- Attribution to the original creator
- Restrictions on commercial use (where applicable)
- Limitations on modification or adaptation

We make reasonable efforts to ensure compliance with these terms. If you identify any issue relating to attribution or licence conditions, please contact us so it can be reviewed and rectified.

People and Privacy

We aim to respect privacy in all imagery used.

- Images featuring identifiable individuals are used with appropriate permissions or releases where required
- We avoid the use of sensitive, misleading, or inappropriate imagery

Consideration is given to cultural, legal, and regional expectations across our global audience.

Image Use by Third Parties

Unless otherwise expressly permitted, images on this website must not be copied, reproduced, republished, uploaded, posted, transmitted, or distributed in any form without prior written approval.

Requests for use of our imagery should be submitted via our contact channels.

Accuracy and Representation

We make reasonable efforts to ensure that all imagery is accurate and appropriate at the time of publication. However, images are provided for illustrative purposes only and may not reflect current conditions, final outcomes, or exact project specifications.

Contact

For enquiries regarding image use, ownership, permissions, or to report a concern, please contact us via our website.

We will respond promptly to all legitimate requests.
